

Hoi An Herbal Taste Challenge

Half-Day

The authentic scents and flavours of Vietnam come to light during this educational, yet delectable journey through the Hoi An farming environment.

Your journey commences with a tasting of herbal tea crafted from herbs cultivated in our organic garden. As you indulge in this aromatic infusion, you'll take a tour of our organic herb farm, boasting over fifty varieties of medicinal herbs, fruits, and edible flowers.

More than just a sightseeing excursion, this Discova-exclusive tour offers a unique opportunity to observe and learn from an exemplary organic farming model that honours nature and champions sustainability. Following this, you will engage in a challenge designed to assess your knowledge of herbs, with the chance to win exciting prizes.

At the end of this culinary feast for all senses, it is time to relish the flavours of delectable homemade local cuisine expertly prepared by the farm's proprietor, immersing you in an authentic "farm-to-table" culinary experience.

What makes this experience so unique?

- Observe sustainable farming in an organic herb farm.
- Join the Herbal Taste Challenge which will test your knowledge on herbs.
- Enjoy a relaxing lunch with delicious homemade local food.
